Information list of a subject

Faculty:       Subject name: Introduction to Sociology         Subject code: S-120       Subject name: Introduction to Sociology         Type, scope, and method of educational activities: Two weekly meetings of 90 minute cach, amounting 42 hours total. Every week, the first meeting takes the form of a lecture and the second, of a seminar. (full-time form)         Number of credits: 6       Suggested semester: spring semester         Level of studies: 1       Conditional previous subjects:         Requirements for the course:       Course evaluation (%): A – excellent: 100-93%, B – very good: 92-84%, C – good: 83-749         D – satisfactory: 73-63%, E – sufficient: 62-51%, Fx – fail: 50-0%.       Passing the course assumes that student was not absent at more than 4 class sessions. Lat arrival is marked as a "tardie". Three tardies equal one absence. Missing more than 15 minute of the class is considered an absence.         Learning outcomes:       After completing the course, students are able to describe the causes of the origins of sociology and its development. They will be able to explain the specifics of the sociologic view of society, interpret basic sociological concepts and terms. They will articula sociology's distinctive view of social structures, clarify basic social cogical terminology an oncongize basic social phenomena, identify complex social relationships, and recognize the workings of social institutions in the setting of modern society, thereby fostering a nuance understanding of their interrelationships.         Brief outline of the course:       I. An Introduction to Sociology (History and theoretical perspective)         2. Sociological research (Approaches an	University: Bratislava International Sch	ool of Liberal Arts (BISLA)
Type, scope, and method of educational activities: Two weekly meetings of 90 minute each, amounting 42 hours total. Every week, the first meeting takes the form of a lecture ar the second, of a seminar. (full-time form)         Number of credits: 6       Suggested semester: spring semester         Level of studies: 1       Conditional previous subjects:         Requirements for the course:       Course evaluation (%): A – excellent: 100-93%, B – very good: 92-84%, C – good: 83-74% D – satisfactory: 73-63%, E – sufficient: 62-51%, Fx – fail: 50-0%.         Passing the course assumes that student was not absent at more than 4 class sessions. La arrival is marked as a "tardie". Three tardies equal one absence. Missing more than 15 minute of the class is considered an absence.         Learning outcomes:       After completing the course, students are able to describe the causes of the origins or sociology and its development. They will be able to explain the specifics of the sociologic view of society, interpret basic sociological concepts and terms. They will articula sociologic's distinctive view of social structures, clarify basic social orginal thread an unce understanding of their interrelationships.         Brief outline of the course:       1. An Introduction to Social y (History and theoretical perspective)         2. Socialization and social interaction (Theories, agents, socialization across life course)       5. Groups and Organisations (Types, structure, forms of organisation)         6. Gender, sex and sexuality (Sex and gender theories)       7. Marriage and Family (New trends, variations of family, perspectives)         8. Aging and the Elderly (Aging society, challenges, perspe	Faculty:	· · · · ·
each, amounting 42 hours total. Every week, the first meeting takes the form of a lecture and the second, of a seminar. (full-time form) Number of credits: 6 Suggested semester: spring semester Level of studies: 1 Conditional previous subjects: Requirements for the course: Course evaluation (%): A – excellent: 100-93%, B – very good: 92-84%, C – good: 83-74% D – satisfactory: 73-63%, E – sufficient: 62-51%, Fx – fail: 50-0%. Passing the course assumes that student was not absent at more than 4 class sessions. Lat arrival is marked as a "tardie". Three tardies equal one absence. Missing more than 15 minute of the class is considered an absence. Learning outcomes: After completing the course, students are able to describe the causes of the origins of sociology and its development. They will be able to explain the specifics of the sociologic accilogy and its development. They will be able to explain the specifics of the sociologic accilogy's distinctive view of social structures, clarify basic sociological terminology and concepts, and be competent in using these conceptual frameworks to examine prevailin social phenomena and processes in contemporary contexts. In addition, students will be ab to recognize basic social phenomena, identify complex social relationships, and recognize th workings of social institutions in the setting of modern society, thereby fostering a nuance understanding of their interrelationships. Brief outline of the course: 1. An Introduction to Sociology (History and theoretical perspective) 2. Socialization and social interaction (Theories, agents, socialization across life course) 5. Groups and Organisations (Types, structure, forms of organisation) 6. Gender, sex and sexuality (Sex and gender theories) 7. Marriage and Family (New trends, variations of family, perspectives) 8. Aging and the Elderly (Aging society, challenges, perspectives) 9. Education (Theoretical perspectives and current issues) 10. Government and Politics (Power, authority, forms of government) 11. Population, Urbanisa	Subject code: S-120	Subject name: Introduction to Sociology
Suggested senester:         spring semester           Level of studies: 1         Conditional previous subjects:           Requirements for the course:         Course evaluation (%): A – excellent: 100-93%, B – very good: 92-84%, C – good: 83-74%           D – satisfactory: 73-63%, E – sufficient: 62-51%, Fx – fail: 50-0%.         Paasing the course assumes that student was not absent at more than 4 class sessions. Lat arrival is marked as a "tardie". Three tardies equal one absence. Missing more than 15 minute of the class is considered an absence.           Learning outcomes:         After completing the course, students are able to describe the causes of the origins of sociology and its development. They will be able to explain the specifics of the sociologic view of society, interpret basic sociological concepts and terms. They will atticula concepts, and be competent in using these conceptual frameworks to examine prevailin social phenomena and processes in contemporary contexts. In addition, students will be ab to recognize basic social phenomena, identify complex social relationships, and recognize the vorkings of social institutions in the setting of modern society, threeby fostering a nuance understanding of their interrelationships.           Brief outline of the course:         1. An Introduction to Sociology (History and theoretical perspective)           2. Sociological research (Approaches and methods)         3. Culture (Elements, pop culture, subculture, cultural change)           4. Socialization and social interaction (Theories, agents, socialization across life course)         5. Goups and Organisations (Types, structure, forms of organisation)           6. Gender, sex and sexuality (Sex and gen	each, amounting 42 hours total. Every v	week, the first meeting takes the form of a lecture and
Level of studies: 1         Conditional previous subjects:         Requirements for the course:         Course evaluation (%): A – excellent: 100-93%, B – very good: 92-84%, C – good: 83-749         D – satisfactory: 73-63%, E – sufficient: 62-51%, Fx – fail: 50-0%.         Passing the course assumes that student was not absent at more than 4 class sessions. Lat arrival is marked as a "tardic". Three tardies equal one absence. Missing more than 15 minute of the class is considered an absence.         Learning outcomes:         After completing the course, students are able to describe the causes of the origins or sociology and its development. They will be able to explain the specifics of the sociologic view of society, interpret basic sociological concepts and terms. They will articula sociology' distinctive view of social structures, clarify basic sociological terminology an concepts, and be competent in using these conceptual frameworks to examine prevailin social phenomena and processes in contemporary contexts. In addition, students will be ab to recognize basic social phenomena, identify complex social relationships, and recognize the workings of social institutions in the setting of modern society, thereby fostering a nuance understanding of their interrelationships.         Brief outline of the course:         1. An Introduction to Sociology (History and theoretical perspective)         2. Sociological research (Approaches and methods)         3. Culture (Elements, poop culture, subculture, cultural change)         4. Socialization and social interaction (Theories, agents, socialization across life course)         5. Groups and Organisations	Number of credits: 6
Level of studies: 1         Conditional previous subjects:         Requirements for the course:         Course evaluation (%): A – excellent: 100-93%, B – very good: 92-84%, C – good: 83-749         D – satisfactory: 73-63%, E – sufficient: 62-51%, Fx – fail: 50-0%.         Passing the course assumes that student was not absent at more than 4 class sessions. Lat arrival is marked as a "tardic". Three tardies equal one absence. Missing more than 15 minute of the class is considered an absence.         Learning outcomes:         After completing the course, students are able to describe the causes of the origins or sociology and its development. They will be able to explain the specifics of the sociologic view of society, interpret basic sociological concepts and terms. They will articula sociology' distinctive view of social structures, clarify basic sociological terminology an concepts, and be competent in using these conceptual frameworks to examine prevailin social phenomena and processes in contemporary contexts. In addition, students will be ab to recognize basic social phenomena, identify complex social relationships, and recognize the workings of social institutions in the setting of modern society, thereby fostering a nuance understanding of their interrelationships.         Brief outline of the course:         1. An Introduction to Sociology (History and theoretical perspective)         2. Sociological research (Approaches and methods)         3. Culture (Elements, poop culture, subculture, cultural change)         4. Socialization and social interaction (Theories, agents, socialization across life course)         5. Groups and Organisations	Suggested semester: spring semester
Conditional previous subjects:         Requirements for the course:         Course evaluation (%): A – excellent: 100-93%, B – very good: 92-84%, C – good: 83-74%         D – satisfactory: 73-63%, E – sufficient: 62-51%, Fx – fail: 50-0%.         Passing the course assumes that student was not absent at more than 4 class sessions. Lar arrival is marked as a "tardie". Three tardies equal one absence. Missing more than 15 minute of the class is considered an absence.         Learning outcomes:         After completing the course, students are able to describe the causes of the origins or society, interpret basic sociological concepts and terms. They will atticula sociology's distinctive view of social structures, clarify basic sociological terminology and concepts, and be competent in using these conceptual frameworks to examine prevailing social phenomena and processes in contemporary contexts. In addition, students will be ab to recognize basic social phenomena, identify complex social relationships, and recognize the workings of social institutions in the setting of modern society, thereby fostering a nuance understanding of their interrelationships.         Brief outline of the course:         1. An Introduction to Sociology (History and theoretical perspective)       2. Socialization and social interaction (Theories, agents, socialization across life course)       5. Groups and Organisations (Types, structure, forms of organisation)       6. Gender, sex and sexuality (Sex and gender theories)       7. Marriage and Family (New trends, variations of family, perspectives)       8. Aging and the Elderly (Aging society, challenges, perspect
<ul> <li>Requirements for the course:</li> <li>Course evaluation (%): A – excellent: 100-93%, B – very good: 92-84%, C – good: 83-74%</li> <li>D – satisfactory: 73-63%, E – sufficient: 62-51%, Fx – fail: 50-0%.</li> <li>Passing the course assumes that student was not absent at more than 4 class sessions. La arrival is marked as a "tardie". Three tardies equal one absence. Missing more than 15 minute of the class is considered an absence.</li> <li>Learning outcomes:</li> <li>After completing the course, students are able to describe the causes of the origins of sociology and its development. They will be able to explain the specifics of the sociologica view of social structures, clarify basic sociological terminology are oncepts, and be competent in using these conceptual frameworks to examine prevailin social phenomena and processes in contemporary contexts. In addition, students will be ab to recognize basic social phenomena, identify complex social relationships, and recognize the vorkings of social institutions in the setting of modern society, thereby fostering a nuance understanding of their interrelationships.</li> <li>Brief outline of the course: <ol> <li>An Introduction to Sociology (History and theoretical perspective)</li> <li>Sociological research (Approaches and methods)</li> <li>Culture (Elements, pop culture, subculture, cultural change)</li> <li>Socialization and social interaction (Theories, agents, socialization across life course)</li> <li>Groups and Organisations (Types, structure, forms of government)</li> <li>Population, Urbanisation &amp; Environment (Demography and Population)</li> <li>Social Movement and Politics (Power, authority, forms of government)</li> <li>Population, Urbanisation &amp; Environment (Demography and Population)</li> <li>Social Movement and Social Change (Collective behaviour, social changes)</li> </ol></li></ul> <li>Recommended readings: <ul> <li>Giddens, A. – Sutton, P.W. 2021: Sociology. Cambridge: Polity Press.</li> <li>Tomley, S. et al. 2019: The Sociology Book: Big Ideas Sim</li></ul></li>
<ul> <li>Course evaluation (%): A – excellent: 100-93%, B – very good: 92-84%, C – good: 83-74%</li> <li>D – satisfactory: 73-63%, E – sufficient: 62-51%, Fx – fail: 50-0%.</li> <li>Passing the course assumes that student was not absent at more than 4 class sessions. Lat arrival is marked as a "tardie". Three tardies equal one absence. Missing more than 15 minute of the class is considered an absence.</li> <li>Learning outcomes:</li> <li>After completing the course, students are able to describe the causes of the origins of sociology and its development. They will be able to explain the specifics of the sociologic: view of society, interpret basic sociological concepts and terms. They will articula sociology's distinctive view of social structures, clarify basic sociological terminology at concepts, and be competent in using these conceptual frameworks to examine prevailin social phenomena and processes in contemporary contexts. In addition, students will be able to recognize basic social phenomena, identify complex social relationships, and recognize the workings of social institutions in the setting of modern society, thereby fostering a nuance understanding of their interrelationships.</li> <li>Brief outline of the course: <ol> <li>An Introduction to Sociology (History and theoretical perspective)</li> <li>Sociological research (Approaches and methods)</li> <li>Culture (Elements, pop culture, subculture, cultural change)</li> </ol> </li> <li>Marriage and Family (New trends, variations of family, perspectives)</li> <li>Aging and the Elderly (Aging society, challenges, perspectives)</li> <li>Aging and the Elderly (Aging society, challenges, perspectives)</li> <li>Goidauns, A. – Suton, P.W. 2021: Sociology. Cambridge: Polity Press.</li> <li>Tomley, S. et al. 2019: The Sociology Cambridge: Polity Press.</li> <li>Tomley, S. et al. 2019: The Sociology Cambridge: Polity Press.</li> <li>Tomley, S. et al. 2019: The Sociology Cambridge: Polity Press.</li> <li>Tomley, S. et al. 2019: The Sociology Book: Big Ideas Simpl</li></ul>
Learning outcomes:         After completing the course, students are able to describe the causes of the origins of sociology and its development. They will be able to explain the specifies of the sociological view of society, interpret basic sociological concepts and terms. They will articula sociology's distinctive view of social structures, clarify basic sociological terminology and concepts, and be competent in using these conceptual frameworks to examine prevailing social phenomena and processes in contemporary contexts. In addition, students will be able to recognize basic social phenomena, identify complex social relationships, and recognize the workings of social institutions in the setting of modern society, thereby fostering a nuance understanding of their interrelationships.         Brief outline of the course:       1. An Introduction to Sociology (History and theoretical perspective)         2. Sociological research (Approaches and methods)       3. Culture (Elements, pop culture, subculture, cultural change)         4. Socialization and social interaction (Theories, agents, socialization across life course)       5. Groups and Organisations (Types, structure, forms of organisation)         6. Gender, sex and sexuality (Sex and gender theories)       7. Marriage and Family (New trends, variations of family, perspectives)         8. Aging and the Elderly (Aging society, challenges, perspectives)       9. Education (Theoretical perspective, and Population)         12. Social Movement and Social Change (Collective behaviour, social changes)       7. Government and Politics (Power, authority, forms of government)         11. Population, Urbanisation & Environment (Demography and Population)       12. Social	Course evaluation (%): A – excellent: 1 D – satisfactory: 73-63%, E – sufficient: Passing the course assumes that studen arrival is marked as a "tardie". Three tar	62-51%, Fx – fail: 50-0%. It was not absent at more than 4 class sessions. Late
After completing the course, students are able to describe the causes of the origins of sociology and its development. They will be able to explain the specifics of the sociologic view of society, interpret basic sociological concepts and terms. They will articula sociology's distinctive view of social structures, clarify basic sociological terminology ar concepts, and be competent in using these conceptual frameworks to examine prevailin social phenomena and processes in contemporary contexts. In addition, students will be ab to recognize basic social phenomena, identify complex social relationships, and recognize th workings of social institutions in the setting of modern society, thereby fostering a nuance understanding of their interrelationships. Brief outline of the course: 1. An Introduction to Sociology (History and theoretical perspective) 2. Sociological research (Approaches and methods) 3. Culture (Elements, pop culture, subculture, cultural change) 4. Socialization and social interaction (Theories, agents, socialization across life course) 5. Groups and Organisations (Types, structure, forms of organisation) 6. Gender, sex and sexuality (Sex and gender theories) 7. Marriage and Family (New trends, variations of family, perspectives) 8. Aging and the Elderly (Aging society, challenges, perspectives) 9. Education (Theoretical perspectives and current issues) 10. Government and Politics (Power, authority, forms of government) 11. Population, Urbanisation & Environment (Demography and Population) 12. Social Movement and Social Change (Collective behaviour, social changes) Recommended readings: Giddens, A. – Sutton, P.W. 2021: Sociology. Cambridge: Polity Press. Tomley, S. et al. 2019: Introduction to Research Methods. New York: Little Brown Book Group. Holmes, K. – Tamang, A.L. 2023: Introduction to Sociology 3e. La Vergne: Lightning Source Berger, P.L. 1963: Invitation to Sociology: A Humanistic Perspective. New York: Anchor. Language of the course: English Notes:	of the class is considered an absence.
<ul> <li>Brief outline of the course: <ol> <li>An Introduction to Sociology (History and theoretical perspective)</li> <li>Sociological research (Approaches and methods)</li> <li>Culture (Elements, pop culture, subculture, cultural change)</li> <li>Socialization and social interaction (Theories, agents, socialization across life course)</li> <li>Groups and Organisations (Types, structure, forms of organisation)</li> <li>Gender, sex and sexuality (Sex and gender theories)</li> <li>Marriage and Family (New trends, variations of family, perspectives)</li> <li>Aging and the Elderly (Aging society, challenges, perspectives)</li> <li>Education (Theoretical perspectives and current issues)</li> <li>Government and Politics (Power, authority, forms of government)</li> <li>Population, Urbanisation &amp; Environment (Demography and Population)</li> <li>Social Movement and Social Change (Collective behaviour, social changes)</li> </ol></li></ul> Recommended readings: Giddens, A. – Sutton, P.W. 2021: Sociology. Cambridge: Polity Press. Tomley, S. et al. 2019: The Sociology Book: Big Ideas Simply Explained. New York: D Publishing. Dawson, C. 2019: Introduction to Research Methods. New York: Little Brown Book Group. Holmes, K. – Tamang, A.L. 2023: Introduction to Sociology 3e. La Vergne: Lightning Source Berger, P.L. 1963: Invitation to Sociology: A Humanistic Perspective. New York: Anchor. Language of the course: English Notes:	After completing the course, students sociology and its development. They we view of society, interpret basic soci sociology's distinctive view of social s concepts, and be competent in using social phenomena and processes in con to recognize basic social phenomena, id workings of social institutions in the se	ill be able to explain the specifics of the sociological ological concepts and terms. They will articulate structures, clarify basic sociological terminology and these conceptual frameworks to examine prevailing temporary contexts. In addition, students will be able lentify complex social relationships, and recognize the etting of modern society, thereby fostering a nuanced
<ol> <li>Sociological research (Approaches and methods)</li> <li>Culture (Elements, pop culture, subculture, cultural change)</li> <li>Socialization and social interaction (Theories, agents, socialization across life course)</li> <li>Groups and Organisations (Types, structure, forms of organisation)</li> <li>Gender, sex and sexuality (Sex and gender theories)</li> <li>Marriage and Family (New trends, variations of family, perspectives)</li> <li>Aging and the Elderly (Aging society, challenges, perspectives)</li> <li>Education (Theoretical perspectives and current issues)</li> <li>Government and Politics (Power, authority, forms of government)</li> <li>Population, Urbanisation &amp; Environment (Demography and Population)</li> <li>Social Movement and Social Change (Collective behaviour, social changes)</li> <li>Recommended readings:</li> <li>Giddens, A. – Sutton, P.W. 2021: Sociology. Cambridge: Polity Press.</li> <li>Tomley, S. et al. 2019: The Sociology Book: Big Ideas Simply Explained. New York: D</li> <li>Publishing.</li> <li>Dawson, C. 2019: Introduction to Research Methods. New York: Little Brown Book Group.</li> <li>Holmes, K. – Tamang, A.L. 2023: Introduction to Sociology 3e. La Vergne: Lightning Source Berger, P.L. 1963: Invitation to Sociology: A Humanistic Perspective. New York: Anchor.</li> <li>Language of the course: English</li> </ol>
<ol> <li>Sociological research (Approaches and methods)</li> <li>Culture (Elements, pop culture, subculture, cultural change)</li> <li>Socialization and social interaction (Theories, agents, socialization across life course)</li> <li>Groups and Organisations (Types, structure, forms of organisation)</li> <li>Gender, sex and sexuality (Sex and gender theories)</li> <li>Marriage and Family (New trends, variations of family, perspectives)</li> <li>Aging and the Elderly (Aging society, challenges, perspectives)</li> <li>Education (Theoretical perspectives and current issues)</li> <li>Government and Politics (Power, authority, forms of government)</li> <li>Population, Urbanisation &amp; Environment (Demography and Population)</li> <li>Social Movement and Social Change (Collective behaviour, social changes)</li> <li>Recommended readings:</li> <li>Giddens, A. – Sutton, P.W. 2021: Sociology. Cambridge: Polity Press.</li> <li>Tomley, S. et al. 2019: The Sociology Book: Big Ideas Simply Explained. New York: D</li> <li>Publishing.</li> <li>Dawson, C. 2019: Introduction to Research Methods. New York: Little Brown Book Group.</li> <li>Holmes, K. – Tamang, A.L. 2023: Introduction to Sociology 3e. La Vergne: Lightning Source Berger, P.L. 1963: Invitation to Sociology: A Humanistic Perspective. New York: Anchor.</li> <li>Language of the course: English</li> </ol>	1. An Introduction to Sociology (History	and theoretical perspective)
<ul> <li>4. Socialization and social interaction (Theories, agents, socialization across life course)</li> <li>5. Groups and Organisations (Types, structure, forms of organisation)</li> <li>6. Gender, sex and sexuality (Sex and gender theories)</li> <li>7. Marriage and Family (New trends, variations of family, perspectives)</li> <li>8. Aging and the Elderly (Aging society, challenges, perspectives)</li> <li>9. Education (Theoretical perspectives and current issues)</li> <li>10. Government and Politics (Power, authority, forms of government)</li> <li>11. Population, Urbanisation &amp; Environment (Demography and Population)</li> <li>12. Social Movement and Social Change (Collective behaviour, social changes)</li> <li>Recommended readings:</li> <li>Giddens, A. – Sutton, P.W. 2021: Sociology. Cambridge: Polity Press.</li> <li>Tomley, S. et al. 2019: The Sociology Book: Big Ideas Simply Explained. New York: D</li> <li>Publishing.</li> <li>Dawson, C. 2019: Introduction to Research Methods. New York: Little Brown Book Group.</li> <li>Holmes, K. – Tamang, A.L. 2023: Introduction to Sociology 3e. La Vergne: Lightning Source Berger, P.L. 1963: Invitation to Sociology: A Humanistic Perspective. New York: Anchor.</li> <li>Language of the course: English</li> </ul>	2. Sociological research (Approaches an	d methods)
<ul> <li>5. Groups and Organisations (Types, structure, forms of organisation)</li> <li>6. Gender, sex and sexuality (Sex and gender theories)</li> <li>7. Marriage and Family (New trends, variations of family, perspectives)</li> <li>8. Aging and the Elderly (Aging society, challenges, perspectives)</li> <li>9. Education (Theoretical perspectives and current issues)</li> <li>10. Government and Politics (Power, authority, forms of government)</li> <li>11. Population, Urbanisation &amp; Environment (Demography and Population)</li> <li>12. Social Movement and Social Change (Collective behaviour, social changes)</li> <li>Recommended readings:</li> <li>Giddens, A. – Sutton, P.W. 2021: Sociology. Cambridge: Polity Press.</li> <li>Tomley, S. et al. 2019: The Sociology Book: Big Ideas Simply Explained. New York: Dipublishing.</li> <li>Dawson, C. 2019: Introduction to Research Methods. New York: Little Brown Book Group.</li> <li>Holmes, K. – Tamang, A.L. 2023: Introduction to Sociology 3e. La Vergne: Lightning Source Berger, P.L. 1963: Invitation to Sociology: A Humanistic Perspective. New York: Anchor.</li> <li>Language of the course: English</li> <li>Notes:</li> </ul>	3. Culture (Elements, pop culture, subcu	lture, cultural change)
<ul> <li>6. Gender, sex and sexuality (Sex and gender theories)</li> <li>7. Marriage and Family (New trends, variations of family, perspectives)</li> <li>8. Aging and the Elderly (Aging society, challenges, perspectives)</li> <li>9. Education (Theoretical perspectives and current issues)</li> <li>10. Government and Politics (Power, authority, forms of government)</li> <li>11. Population, Urbanisation &amp; Environment (Demography and Population)</li> <li>12. Social Movement and Social Change (Collective behaviour, social changes)</li> <li>Recommended readings:</li> <li>Giddens, A. – Sutton, P.W. 2021: Sociology. Cambridge: Polity Press.</li> <li>Tomley, S. et al. 2019: The Sociology Book: Big Ideas Simply Explained. New York: Di Publishing.</li> <li>Dawson, C. 2019: Introduction to Research Methods. New York: Little Brown Book Group.</li> <li>Holmes, K. – Tamang, A.L. 2023: Introduction to Sociology 3e. La Vergne: Lightning Source Berger, P.L. 1963: Invitation to Sociology: A Humanistic Perspective. New York: Anchor.</li> <li>Language of the course: English</li> <li>Notes:</li> </ul>	4. Socialization and social interaction (T	heories, agents, socialization across life course)
<ul> <li>7. Marriage and Family (New trends, variations of family, perspectives)</li> <li>8. Aging and the Elderly (Aging society, challenges, perspectives)</li> <li>9. Education (Theoretical perspectives and current issues)</li> <li>10. Government and Politics (Power, authority, forms of government)</li> <li>11. Population, Urbanisation &amp; Environment (Demography and Population)</li> <li>12. Social Movement and Social Change (Collective behaviour, social changes)</li> <li>Recommended readings:</li> <li>Giddens, A. – Sutton, P.W. 2021: Sociology. Cambridge: Polity Press.</li> <li>Tomley, S. et al. 2019: The Sociology Book: Big Ideas Simply Explained. New York: Dipublishing.</li> <li>Dawson, C. 2019: Introduction to Research Methods. New York: Little Brown Book Group.</li> <li>Holmes, K. – Tamang, A.L. 2023: Introduction to Sociology 3e. La Vergne: Lightning Source Berger, P.L. 1963: Invitation to Sociology: A Humanistic Perspective. New York: Anchor.</li> <li>Language of the course: English</li> <li>Notes:</li> </ul>	5. Groups and Organisations (Types, structure, forms of organisation)
<ul> <li>8. Aging and the Elderly (Aging society, challenges, perspectives)</li> <li>9. Education (Theoretical perspectives and current issues)</li> <li>10. Government and Politics (Power, authority, forms of government)</li> <li>11. Population, Urbanisation &amp; Environment (Demography and Population)</li> <li>12. Social Movement and Social Change (Collective behaviour, social changes)</li> <li>Recommended readings:</li> <li>Giddens, A. – Sutton, P.W. 2021: Sociology. Cambridge: Polity Press.</li> <li>Tomley, S. et al. 2019: The Sociology Book: Big Ideas Simply Explained. New York: D</li> <li>Publishing.</li> <li>Dawson, C. 2019: Introduction to Research Methods. New York: Little Brown Book Group.</li> <li>Holmes, K. – Tamang, A.L. 2023: Introduction to Sociology 3e. La Vergne: Lightning Source Berger, P.L. 1963: Invitation to Sociology: A Humanistic Perspective. New York: Anchor.</li> <li>Language of the course: English</li> <li>Notes:</li> </ul>	6. Gender, sex and sexuality (Sex and ge	ender theories)
<ul> <li>9. Education (Theoretical perspectives and current issues)</li> <li>10. Government and Politics (Power, authority, forms of government)</li> <li>11. Population, Urbanisation &amp; Environment (Demography and Population)</li> <li>12. Social Movement and Social Change (Collective behaviour, social changes)</li> <li>Recommended readings:</li> <li>Giddens, A. – Sutton, P.W. 2021: Sociology. Cambridge: Polity Press.</li> <li>Tomley, S. et al. 2019: The Sociology Book: Big Ideas Simply Explained. New York: Di Publishing.</li> <li>Dawson, C. 2019: Introduction to Research Methods. New York: Little Brown Book Group.</li> <li>Holmes, K. – Tamang, A.L. 2023: Introduction to Sociology 3e. La Vergne: Lightning Source Berger, P.L. 1963: Invitation to Sociology: A Humanistic Perspective. New York: Anchor.</li> <li>Language of the course: English</li> <li>Notes:</li> </ul>	7. Marriage and Family (New trends, va	riations of family, perspectives)
<ul> <li>10. Government and Politics (Power, authority, forms of government)</li> <li>11. Population, Urbanisation &amp; Environment (Demography and Population)</li> <li>12. Social Movement and Social Change (Collective behaviour, social changes)</li> <li>Recommended readings:</li> <li>Giddens, A. – Sutton, P.W. 2021: Sociology. Cambridge: Polity Press.</li> <li>Tomley, S. et al. 2019: The Sociology Book: Big Ideas Simply Explained. New York: Dipublishing.</li> <li>Dawson, C. 2019: Introduction to Research Methods. New York: Little Brown Book Group.</li> <li>Holmes, K. – Tamang, A.L. 2023: Introduction to Sociology 3e. La Vergne: Lightning Source Berger, P.L. 1963: Invitation to Sociology: A Humanistic Perspective. New York: Anchor.</li> <li>Language of the course: English</li> </ul>	8. Aging and the Elderly (Aging society)	, challenges, perspectives)
<ul> <li>11. Population, Urbanisation &amp; Environment (Demography and Population)</li> <li>12. Social Movement and Social Change (Collective behaviour, social changes)</li> <li>Recommended readings:</li> <li>Giddens, A. – Sutton, P.W. 2021: Sociology. Cambridge: Polity Press.</li> <li>Tomley, S. et al. 2019: The Sociology Book: Big Ideas Simply Explained. New York: Di Publishing.</li> <li>Dawson, C. 2019: Introduction to Research Methods. New York: Little Brown Book Group.</li> <li>Holmes, K. – Tamang, A.L. 2023: Introduction to Sociology 3e. La Vergne: Lightning Source Berger, P.L. 1963: Invitation to Sociology: A Humanistic Perspective. New York: Anchor.</li> <li>Language of the course: English</li> </ul>	9. Education (Theoretical perspectives a	nd current issues)
<ul> <li>12. Social Movement and Social Change (Collective behaviour, social changes)</li> <li>Recommended readings:</li> <li>Giddens, A. – Sutton, P.W. 2021: Sociology. Cambridge: Polity Press.</li> <li>Tomley, S. et al. 2019: The Sociology Book: Big Ideas Simply Explained. New York: Di Publishing.</li> <li>Dawson, C. 2019: Introduction to Research Methods. New York: Little Brown Book Group.</li> <li>Holmes, K. – Tamang, A.L. 2023: Introduction to Sociology 3e. La Vergne: Lightning Source Berger, P.L. 1963: Invitation to Sociology: A Humanistic Perspective. New York: Anchor.</li> <li>Language of the course: English</li> <li>Notes:</li> </ul>	10. Government and Politics (Power, au	thority, forms of government)
Recommended readings: Giddens, A. – Sutton, P.W. 2021: Sociology. Cambridge: Polity Press. Tomley, S. et al. 2019: The Sociology Book: Big Ideas Simply Explained. New York: Di Publishing. Dawson, C. 2019: Introduction to Research Methods. New York: Little Brown Book Group. Holmes, K. – Tamang, A.L. 2023: Introduction to Sociology 3e. La Vergne: Lightning Source Berger, P.L. 1963: Invitation to Sociology: A Humanistic Perspective. New York: Anchor. Language of the course: English Notes:	11. Population, Urbanisation & Environ	ment (Demography and Population)
<ul> <li>Giddens, A. – Sutton, P.W. 2021: Sociology. Cambridge: Polity Press.</li> <li>Tomley, S. et al. 2019: The Sociology Book: Big Ideas Simply Explained. New York: Di Publishing.</li> <li>Dawson, C. 2019: Introduction to Research Methods. New York: Little Brown Book Group.</li> <li>Holmes, K. – Tamang, A.L. 2023: Introduction to Sociology 3e. La Vergne: Lightning Source</li> <li>Berger, P.L. 1963: Invitation to Sociology: A Humanistic Perspective. New York: Anchor.</li> <li>Language of the course: English</li> <li>Notes:</li> </ul>	12. Social Movement and Social Change	e (Collective behaviour, social changes)
Tomley, S. et al. 2019: The Sociology Book: Big Ideas Simply Explained. New York: Di Publishing. Dawson, C. 2019: Introduction to Research Methods. New York: Little Brown Book Group. Holmes, K. – Tamang, A.L. 2023: Introduction to Sociology 3e. La Vergne: Lightning Source Berger, P.L. 1963: Invitation to Sociology: A Humanistic Perspective. New York: Anchor. Language of the course: English Notes:	Recommended readings:
Publishing. Dawson, C. 2019: Introduction to Research Methods. New York: Little Brown Book Group. Holmes, K. – Tamang, A.L. 2023: Introduction to Sociology 3e. La Vergne: Lightning Source Berger, P.L. 1963: Invitation to Sociology: A Humanistic Perspective. New York: Anchor. Language of the course: English Notes:	Giddens, A Sutton, P.W. 2021: Sociol	logy. Cambridge: Polity Press.
Dawson, C. 2019: Introduction to Research Methods. New York: Little Brown Book Group. Holmes, K. – Tamang, A.L. 2023: Introduction to Sociology 3e. La Vergne: Lightning Source Berger, P.L. 1963: Invitation to Sociology: A Humanistic Perspective. New York: Anchor. Language of the course: English Notes:	Tomley, S. et al. 2019: The Sociology	Book: Big Ideas Simply Explained. New York: DK
Holmes, K. – Tamang, A.L. 2023: Introduction to Sociology 3e. La Vergne: Lightning Source Berger, P.L. 1963: Invitation to Sociology: A Humanistic Perspective. New York: Anchor. Language of the course: English Notes:	Publishing.
Berger, P.L. 1963: Invitation to Sociology: A Humanistic Perspective. New York: Anchor. Language of the course: English Notes:	Dawson, C. 2019: Introduction to Resea	rch Methods. New York: Little Brown Book Group.
Berger, P.L. 1963: Invitation to Sociology: A Humanistic Perspective. New York: Anchor. Language of the course: English Notes:	Holmes, K Tamang, A.L. 2023: Introd	duction to Sociology 3e. La Vergne: Lightning Source
Language of the course: English Notes:	Berger, P.L. 1963: Invitation to Sociolog	gy: A Humanistic Perspective. New York: Anchor.
	Notes:

Evaluation
Total number of evaluated students:
Α	В	С	D	E	FX
(percentage	(percentage	(percentage	(percentage	(percentage	(percentage of students	of students	of students	of students	of students	of students who got A)	who got B)	who got C)	who got D)	who got E)	who got FX)
Instructor: Mgr. Lenka Diener, PhD., Mgr. Vladimír Hurban
Date of the last change: 16.2.2024
Approved: Prof. PhDr. František Novosád, CSc.							