Prerequisite:

Academic English placement test.

Course Objectives

- Develop each student's basic English language skills, and writing skills and strategies
- Develop each student's critical reading and critical thinking skills
- Provide an understanding of the basics of English academic composition
- Train students in the composition of academic paragraphs and essays using accepted academic English writing conventions (outlines, thesis statements, topic sentences, cohesive devices, etc.)

Contents

This compulsory first-year writing and language course aims to prepare students for the study requirements in their other courses. Students work on their own, but also develop peer reviewing and feedback skills. Academic vocabulary and grammar will also be covered.

Required Readings

These will come from appropriate news sources on current events as they are reported. They will also be taken from the course textbooks as well as other sources provided by the instructor.
